

Wakefield Five Plays Maryland Here Today

The Wakefield Warriors will be hosts to Richard Montgomery High this afternoon, for their second basketball tilt of the season.

Although the Wakefield five won their first encounter last Friday evening easily over George Washington J.V., the Warriors will be at a loss without lanky Al Lederle, who racked up at total of 18 points in the 51 to 33 victory. Lederle will be out for the rest of the season due to a knee operation coming up.

Coach Robbie Robinson stated that the quint "looked good, but has a lot to learn," after the last game. Coach Robinson also reports that the Montgomery squad will use a zone defense, different from the man to man tactics executed by the Warriors.

Along with Lederle, Ray Regan will be replaced in the starting line-up. Warren Watson and Henry Mayo are slated to see action with the top five in their places.

The afternoon tilt will begin at 3:30 p.m., and will be played on the Wakefield "home court."
